The Abode of Happiness ever after

The Chola Kings often referred to the Nandi Hills as Anand Gira - the Abode of Happiness.

While times changed, the spirit of the land stayed the same, where seekers would find, among the many gifts of nature, themselves too. The Estates, nestled among the Nandi Hills, carries forward that spirit of lush green diversity and a mesmerizing flora and fauna.~~~~~

Bamboo: The savior of the spirit of the land

The Bamboo Bay, fashioned solely out of bamboo, is absolutely riveting in its beauty. SRK has collaborated with KONBAC to create these amazing eco-friendly structures, that weave a nest of tranquility for the residents.

BAMBOO PAVILIONS FOR EVENTS

The Estates guards its territory with magnificent works of bamboo, shapely and sacred in appearance, yet airy enough to allow the breeze through. ~~~~~

Nature's Blueprint

Look into the blueprint of India's most ambitious and nature-inspired residential plots where all amenities meet the best quality standards required for an inspired living.

The Estates Master Plan

Where trees shine like silver and the birds like jewels

The sun is reflected in the leaves of the tall silver oak, while the mist lures the playful peacocks out in all their turquoise glory. It is this untarnished wealth of the land that the majestic Rudraksh tree guards, aside from protecting precious trees atop which rest a diverse species of birds.
